

Nicholas Erickson, Of Finnish-American A. C., Wins Eight-Mile Road Race at Port Chester

Leading Batsman With the Yankees

By Jack Masters

The Finnish-American Athletic Club, which has cradled many long distance stars since its inception, a few years ago, scored again yesterday when Nicholas Erickson, a newcomer in the ranks of the club, romped off with first prize. Erickson, who had a handicap of 20 yards, covered the distance in 48:37, defeating Albert Michaelson, of the Finnish-American A. C., by fifty yards. Johnny Cain, of the Mohawk A. C., was a close third.

Not content with first place the club also took down the fast time of the seven-mile race by negotiating the seven-mile course in 44:13. The club's other runners, the Mohawk A. C., were the scratch men, but they were not able to finish the race. Erickson, who had a handicap of 20 yards, covered the distance in 48:37, defeating Albert Michaelson, of the Finnish-American A. C., by fifty yards. Johnny Cain, of the Mohawk A. C., was a close third.

Eighty athletes from clubs in the adjacent states made up the field for the race, and all but twenty-two of them were from the Mohawk A. C. It was not until the last mile that the club's runners were sent away and, although they were placed better than his, they were not able to finish the race. Erickson, who had a handicap of 20 yards, covered the distance in 48:37, defeating Albert Michaelson, of the Finnish-American A. C., by fifty yards. Johnny Cain, of the Mohawk A. C., was a close third.

Princess and Mlle. Lenglen Feature in Tennis Tournament

BRUSSELS, May 14 (By The Associated Press).—Princess Lobkowitz, of Czechoslovakia, by defeating Mrs. Satterthwaite, of England, 6-0, 6-0, to-day shared with Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the champion, the honors of the second day's play in the international tennis tournament. The princess displayed wonderful skill, and the experts are of the opinion that she may yet prove to be one of the most formidable challengers for Mlle. Lenglen's title of "Queen of the Courts."

Noted Amateur Oarsman Dies Playing Handball

ASBURY PARK, N. J., May 14.—John O'Regan, one of the most noted amateur oarsmen of the world, dropped dead while playing handball at his home here today. He was sixty-one years old.

Scotland Soccers Win Over Ireland by 5-3

The Scottish national football team, showing better team play than the forwards, defeated Ireland today, by the score of 5 goals to 3. The annual international semi-finals of the Scottish Footballers' Protection Association at New York Oval yesterday, and thereby earned the right to play the winner of the England-Sweden match to be played at the same place on Sunday.

Physician Orders Morgan To Take Temporary Rest

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 14.—Henry S. Morgan, of New York City, who rows No. 6 on the Harvard varsity crew, was ordered to give up the sport for one week after consultation today with Dr. George Denny, the physician in the rowing squad. Morgan, who is the rowing squad's manager, was the best oar at Harvard.

Carpenter Returns To Paris From London

PARIS, May 14.—Georges Carpentier, the light heavyweight champion pugilist, returned to Paris last night from London, where last week he successfully defended his title against Ted "Kid" Lewis.

This is one of the most recent pictures of "Whitey" Witt, recently obtained by the Yankees to fill in during the suspensions of Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel. Witt has been an agreeable surprise to the Yankee fans. He is not only the leading batter on his team, but until yesterday, when he was displaced by George Sisler, of the Browns, was leading the league. "Whitey's" bat has been a big factor in keeping the New York Americans in first place.

THE ROUND-UP

By The Staff

HORSE RACING, which has many enemies, received a powerful boost with the running of the Kentucky Derby and the Proakness Stakes. More than 125,000 lovers of the thoroughbred viewed these two turf spectacles last Saturday, and the victories of Morvich and Pillory will linger long in the memory of those who were fortunate enough to see these great colts stamp their names in the history of the sport of kings.

Is Tilden Losing His Marvelous Skill?

THE defeats of William T. Tilden 2d, national and world's lawn tennis singles champion, by William M. Johnston, of California, former national title holder, in the East-West matches at San Francisco last week and in the Pacific Coast tourney yesterday undoubtedly will add new impetus to the controversy as to whether Tilden is slipping.

No Interest in Bout for Carpenter

ANNOUNCEMENTS from Europe that Jack Dempsey had been matched with Georges Carpentier failed to excite any real interest on this side of the Atlantic. The clean-cut victory of the American over his French rival at Jersey City last July satisfied all on this side that the two did not belong in the same ring. Carpenter was clearly outclassed physically. Dempsey, a marvel of the ring, probably could end another bout as quickly as Carpenter stopped Ted Lewis.

Morvich Leaves Louisville for Jamaica Stall

Derby Winner Returning in Fine Style; My Play May Be Lost to Turf

By W. J. Macbeth

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 14.—Life in Louisville is again just one thing after another. Even the policemen seem to have taken a day off after yesterday's Derby strain. A bank hold-up couldn't attract a corporal's guard. The only hold-overs are those who couldn't be moved so quickly. The transients beat as quickly as possible.

Hope of Match Race Killed

The Kentucky Jockey Club was pulling hard for Miss Joy to win the Proakness. They saw in such a happy prospect a greater attraction than the famous match race between Man of War and Sir Barton; a test for Morvich against the then unbeaten filly which sidestepped twice last summer at Saratoga. For the time match races will have to be forgotten.

These conceded Morvich, provided he soundly, that place which in the old days was the property of Man of War held throughout 1920. Many of the spectators are of the opinion that Morvich would bring the old-time champion out of the stud later this year. He could write his own ticket for another appearance of the horse of the century, provided no rival or the handicapper beats Morvich in the meantime.

And for the other horses in the race I want to say that Morvich experienced opposition. They were after him throughout the route, and when the filly came with a rush down the final stretch, John Johnston, running on like a bracelet, without a doubt I was aware my horse was being played to a weighty and honest test.

Jockey Johnson Gets $10,000

LOUISVILLE, May 14.—By his twelfth successive victory, Morvich, the Derby winner, materially increased the bank account of Jockey Albert Johnson, whose skillful handling had much to do with returning home again. A certified check for $10,000 was given the jockey by Mr. Block, owner of the Kentucky Derby winner.

Hammett Reaches Third Round In Harlem Tennis Tournament

Holder of Challenge Cup Is Among Favorites Who Triumph in Long Session on Courts; Elliott Binzen Defeats Nickinow in Straight Sets

By Fred Hawthorne

Class held undisputed sway yesterday in the second day of play in the annual open tournament of the Harlem Tennis Club, on the clay courts at 136th Street and Eighth Avenue. In almost every instance the stronger player carried off the honors, though in some cases only by the narrowest of margins. Alfred D. Hammett, the present holder of the Harlem Challenge Cup, was forced to three sets at 6-8, 6-1, 8-6, for example, by E. W. Thomas, in the first round, while Hugh Oakley and Earl C. Backe were compelled to go three sets before they could claim a victory.

Autographs

ATTACHING one's autograph signifies personal responsibility. The Spalding autograph or trade mark on an athletic implement expresses the pride and confidence that we have in its construction.

A new feature of the Spalding "Autograph" tennis racket line for 1922 is the LAMINATED THROAT. It gives greatest strength and insures weather-tight protection at the throat—the most sensitive part of the frame.

Spalding Autographs represent the highest standard of tennis racket manufacture.
